

US Adult Healthcare Spending Attributable to Cigarette Smoking

GROUPED BY CIGARETTE SMOKING STATUS

$226.7 Billion

is the cost of all US annual healthcare spending attributable to adult cigarette smoking in 2014

11.7% of all US annual healthcare spending is due to adult cigarette smoking:

6.0%

From people who currently smoke

1.3%

From people who quit
within the last 5 yrs

4.4%

From people
who quit
over 5 yrs
ago

*Health care spending associated with dental services was excluded.

People who currently smoke are those who have smoked 100 cigarettes in their lifetime and smoked cigarettes some days or every day.

2010-2014